

REWARD OF GENIUS. VERSES GAIN THEM FREEDOM.

Governor Commutes Sentence of Murderer-Author.

Liberty Also Granted to His Former Accomplice.

Life Imprisonment Cut to Eighteen Years.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TOPEKA (Kan.) May 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Early this morning there will walk out of the great door of the penitentiary at Lansing two free men. They are Carl Arnold and William Harvey. Murderers. They were sent to the prison house for life, but their sentences were commuted by E. W. Hoch, when he was Governor, to eighteen years in the penitentiary. Their crime was a cowardly one, for they killed the Mayor of Kinsley, Kan., by shooting him in the back when he resisted their efforts to rob him. That was in 1918.

These two men were their approaching liberty to a poem said to have been written by Arnold. About two years ago Hoch received a letter from Carl Arnold. In it was a poem signed by "Carl Arnold." The Governor read the poem, then he cried:

"It's a classic," he cried enthusiastically. "It's the work of a genius." The Governor called several friends to his office. "Listen to this," he said. He read, as few other men than he, Hoch can read:

The coarsest soul but lightly feels
The daily dose of ill,
But what distress each hour reveals
For him who his heart conceals
Some aspirations still.
All agreed that there was merit in The verse.
"But there are others just as good," continued the Governor. He read out:
I cannot fawningly implore
As feeble, false hearts can;
In humility before
The power that bars my prison door
I stand, as man to man.

Of fully more than vice appears
In errors we have made,
The ideal that the man reverses
Is not the dream of early years—
You're brief delusions fade.

Though hearts, embittered, still retain
A grudge for old mistakes,
Resentment's sting and vain
The long monotony of pain
No restitution makes.

The ancient eye for eye doctrine
God has, himself, destroyed,
All speaks that voice from Calvary,
Shall shynocks with their ghoulies pierce
Make his commandments void?

Yes, blessed are the merciful
Christian heart,
Or else of fully, faults of will Kneel at mercy's tribunal—
A contrite penitent.

Long I have been with sorrow; long
The agonizing years
I hold no freight of love and song
And laughter—only pain and wrong
And penitence and tears.

For home and love, for liberty
To toll, as free men can—
A hand of fate that bars to me
The gates of opportunity—Blessed, as man to man.

Those who have come in personal contact with Arnold were for the most part convinced that he had plagiarized a poem. The State and other libraries have been searched. Reference books have been sought and everything done and the original of the poem if it is there. Nothing of the kind has been found, and now even the most skeptical are almost willing to admit that it probably was his. In conversation with the police department by the presence of 120 South Park policemen. It was expected that the socialist might try to institute a general harassment on the order of the Hyde Park gatherings of London.

The occasion was made memorable when the police were there to put a stop to any demonstrations in conflict with the park rules. Several socialists sought to distribute cards demanding to know why the socialists were "for-bidden" the lake front, but they were stopped by the police. At a later meeting in Ulrich's Hall, Thomas Morgan was one of the most popular lambasters of the present peace conference and capital. "Andrew Carnegie," said "prince of peace," was the first president of a peace conference ever held in America," shouted Comrade Morgan. Hisses greeted the mention of Mr. Carnegie's name. Comrade Morgan paused long enough for the hissing to have its full effect.

AN EVEN 400 columns is the total gain of The Times in advertising

Careful measurement shows an aggregate of 4504 columns of paid matter printed in The Times last month as against 4104 for April, 1935.

The combined advertising of the two Los Angeles morning contemporaries of The Times was 147 columns less than the amount of ad-

Actual, indisputable figures, as shown in this comparison, prove

District Attorney of New York Says

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.
NEW YORK, May 2.—William Traver Jerome, District Attorney of New York, departed radically from his usual attitude toward the public tonight, by stepping before a large audience, members of the Peoples' Institute, at Cooper Union, and declaring that he wished to explain the conduct of his office "to establish a precedent which would make it difficult for a public servant to dodge responsibility for his official acts."

"I have come here tonight to answer questions. It seemed to me that a public servant should from time to time account to the public for his conduct, not account in a written report, where he could give the thing the color he wanted; not in newspaper interviews, but face to face with the people who have the right to vote."
"I should like to see," he said, "the questions should be in writing, three days before the meeting."

GREAT ADVERTISING GAIN.

April Compilation Shows "The Times" Is In The "400 Class."

AN EVEN 400 columns is the total gain of The Times in advertising for April, 1936, compared with the same month of the previous year.

Careful measurement shows an aggregate of 4504 columns of paid
matter printed in The Times last month as against 4104 for April, 1935.

The combined advertising of the two Los Angeles morning contemporaries of The Times was 147 columns less than the amount of advertising published in The Times alone for April, 1936.

Actual, indisputable figures, as shown in this comparison, prove again and again the vast superiority of The Times as a publicity medium over any other local newspaper.

The Times' lead in business in Los Angeles has been maintained more than twenty-five years; and every month for ten years all this demonstrates that The Times has regularly published more paid

COUNTY JAIL CHANGES.

Remodeling of Building Will Add to Facilities for Prisoners and Visitors.

Because of numerous changes that have been made in the original plans work on the improvements at the County Jail have progressed slowly, but it is now expected they will be completed within six weeks. When the work is finished the accommodations and facilities for handling prisoners will be greatly increased.

The entire front of the ground floor will be occupied by the jailer's offices and reception-rooms for visitors. A new cell will be constructed in the basement and six on the second floor, giving accommodations for a total of about 250 prisoners in the jail. There have been as many as 300 prisoners. The present count is about 150.

There will also be an enclosure where attorneys can confer with prisoners without interruption or annoyance by visitors. The entire floor will be within the range of the jailer's eye. Ten new cells will be constructed in the basement and six on the second floor, giving accommodations for a total of about 250 prisoners in the jail. There have been as many as 300 prisoners. The present count is about 150.

ENDURING PICTURE.

Interpretative Lecture on What is Described as World's Most Famous Painting.

"The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci, the second of a series of "Pictures that Have Moved the World," was the subject of an interpretative lecture at Central Baptist Church, last night by the pastor, Arthur S. Phelps.

"In the city of Milan," he said in the course of his address, "a town of about 500,000 population, stands a brick convent-church of the fifteenth century called 'Santa Maria delle Grazie.' Through a large door to the west one enters the little chapel containing the most famous painting in the world.

"Painted on the plaster more than 410 years ago, it is unfortunately in the last stages of decay. The monks cut a door directly through the bottom of the picture, and soldiers under Napoleon I made it a target while the refectory was used as a stable. Yet through copies made by his pupils, and from what remains of the picture, the unique greatness of the artist's conception, as well as the principal details, still profoundly impress the beholder. This wonderful group is immortal because of its psychological insight. Modern psychology, in spite of its clever tools for physiological research,

Annual Celebration of Hacienda Days.

Representatives of Spanish California families at their yearly reunion. Below, at left, Mrs. B. E. Rico, Romulo Pico, son of Gen. Andres Pico and grandson of Gov. Pico, and at right, Mrs. Pico.

The baby was playing with the yard with a dog, when the animal sniffed at the piece of meat, but was wise enough to leave it alone. Little Frank, however, picked it up and put it in his mouth, but almost immediately spit it out.

When the child sat down at the table in the dining-room, a little later, the father and mother noticed that he seemed ill and was without appetite. Both made a rush for the rear, but Joe stumbled over a chair in his haste, making a racket so that the intruder took to his heels. Not to be outdone this time, the physician, closely followed by his son, did not even take the trouble to grab a pair of trousers, but rushing from the house, gave chase.

Down Beacon, now on this side of the street, and now on that, went the race, the doctor gaining with every hop, his nightgown streaming out behind like a flag of truck, and his long legs eating up the distance between him and the fleeing negro like those of a professional sprinter.

At Beacon street the man turned south, so did the pursuer. At Eighth he was only a few yards behind and, when the negro attempted to make a short cut across a lawn and stumbled, the physician was right there. Pulling the colored man to his feet he demanded an explanation.

"Deed I never done nothing boss, deed I didn't," chattered the frightened negro. "I was just taking a walk when you all took after me. Deed you better let me go or I have the law on you sure."

But the captor was not to be turned from his purpose easily, and then given his choice of the lock-up or a beating, the captive after looking the doctor carefully over chose the lock-up. Dr. Gaynor, however, took the matter in his own hands, and chose the beating. Then he proceeded to do his violent duty as he saw it.

A crowd had gathered by this time and cheered the beater on in fine style. The spectators did not know what it was all about, but they cheered anyway.

Finally the negro, brooding away, ran across the street, where he proceeded to rid his mind of pursuers in general, and a certain pursuer in particular. At that time the big, red car belonging to the Merchants' Fire Dispatch came along, and the crowd shouted to the driver to take the negro to jail. Hearing this, the driver took to his heels and disappeared in an alley opening off Beacon street. Mr. Whitney, who was driving, jumped from the car and gave chase, but as he could not catch the man, who had all of a half block start, he took a few shots at him instead and let it go at that.

Then the beater and his son, realizing that their appearance would hardly permit them to remain longer, borrowed coats and retired gracefully from the scene. Dr. Gaynor says that in his opinion the man had had punishment enough and he will not press the charge against him.

RESIDENT IN NIGHTY BELABORS A HOUSEBREAKER.

Early Morning Action on West Seventh Street Witnessed by Crowd Which Quickly Gathers—Prisoner Escapes While Driver of Fire Dispatch Car Sends Shots After Him.

Early risers in the vicinity of West Seventh and Beacon streets, were treated yesterday morning to the sight of a middle-aged man clad in the usual garb of flying night gowns chasing a much frightened negro.

The action in the street started about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, when Dr. Graynor, hearing a noise as if some one was trying to gain entrance through a front window of his house, arose and donning a pair of slippers, made a run for the front. The man, whoever he was, became frightened and took to his heels, leaving the doctor in possession of the field.

Thinking that the would-be thief would return, the physician, with his son, Joe, sat up and waited. Nearly three hours later their waiting was rewarded by hearing some one at a back window. Both made a rush for the rear, but Joe stumbled over a chair in his haste, making a racket so that the intruder took to his heels. Not to be outdone this time, the physician, closely followed by his son, did not even take the trouble to grab a pair of trousers, but rushing from the house, gave chase.

FENCE SAVES COUNTY CASH.

Theft of Oranges Is Stopped and Coffers Bulge.

Poor Farm Fruit Shipments
Break All Records.

Home for Paupers Still Far from Self-sustaining.

One little twist of the wrist, and the expenditure of about $500 has saved the county of Los Angeles about $10,000 this year at the County Farm. By the building of a high barbed-wire fence around the orange grove at the poor-farm the Supervisors have prevented the stealing of at least two carloads of the golden fruit. This saving is partly responsible for the fact that the reports from oranges are higher than ever before at this period.

The last report from Superintendent

County Farm Scene and Figures.

The new fence around the orange grove, which has saved its cost in the first year by preventing theft of fruit, and a group of the old men who are enjoying the public bounty.

Andrew F. Wade showed that the oranges had yielded the county $10,000 so far, while six or more cars of Valencia are yet to go forward. It is expected that this late fruit will add at least $5000 to the total, making $15,000 for the year—the greatest in the history of the farm.

All this comes from about thirty acres of oranges, less than one-third the area of what undoubtedly is the richest poor farm in the world.

HARD ON THIEVES.
An attempt was made recently to discredit upon the Supervisors, especially upon Supervisor Eldridge, chairman of the County Farm Committee, for extravagance in the building of the fence. Figures taken from the records show that the fence cost about $700, while, according to statement of Superintendent Wade, the protection of the fruit has added at least two carloads to the shipments for the year, not to mention saving that will be made in the marketing of the Valencia, the most valuable portion of the crop.

There are 250 inmates of the farm, mostly old men, and only a few of them are able or willing to work. They are expected to do the work of the farm, though they are expected to do only those that fall from the hands of the inmates. The fence was built to protect the fruit from the hands of the inmates, and it is estimated that they took $10,000 worth of fruit each day.

In addition to this, the hands of the inmates were in the habit of picking the oranges and carrying them off in sacks, selling it later at a profit, and depriving the county of that amount of revenue.

The fence has stopped all this pilfering; the county's property is now as well protected as that of any wide-awake rancher.

MORE ORANGE TREES.
The great has been the success of the orange grove, that the Supervisors have authorized the setting out of more trees. This work will be done within the next few months.

There are 250 acres in the County Farm, and, in addition, the county has a lease on forty additional acres of land, where the inmates are to be planted to vegetables, wherein the inmates are to be planted to vegetables, wherein the inmates are to be planted to vegetables.

For the present year, Supervisor Wade and Superintendent Wade believe that a much more creditable result will be made.

MAINTAIN INMATES.
The increase in the number of inmates is responsible for much of the financial cost in the last year or two. The county now is obliged to take care of the inmates, instead of sending them to the State Hospital, at a cost of $10,000 a year, an expenditure that in the past was met by the county.

JOLT FOR BURGLARS, PORCH LIGHT PLAN.

NEGOTIATIONS are under way between Chief of Police Dishman and the several electric lighting companies to have lights burned all night on residence porches generally in Los Angeles and a cost of about 40 cents a month to the porch owners.

Champ S. Vance of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company is heartily in accord with the chief, and conferences with the heads of the Edison and other companies will be held today.

"A light on the porch would give a large measure of police protection not only to the people of the house, but to those on the street as well," explained the chief yesterday.

The plan is to have an electric light, say, about eight-candle power. This service would be given at a flat rate by the lighting companies, independently of the meter reading, and Mr. Vance tells me that his company would give the service as nearly at cost as could possibly be made.

"This light would go a long way to prevent crime. If there was a light on every porch, Mr. Footpad could not hide behind the trees, or on a piazza scores of them are sold in the market yearly, the credit going to the farmer. Seidman is pork served to the inmates of the farm, though they have an abundance of other kinds of meat and of vegetables and milk of home production.

Fifteen hundred old chickens and about 1000 small ones of all sizes are in the farm yards, and probably fifty dozen eggs are gathered at this season. Many of the eggs go to the hospital.

Everything sent to the hospital is credited to the farm at prevailing market prices. Produce furnished to the hospital by the farm a year ago reached the total of $739.45.

FIGHT ON IMPOSTERS.
The great fight at the farm is to restrict its privileges to the deserving poor. Of the 250 inmates at present, thirty-five are women. In the last year forty-five persons have been discharged from the place, some being found unworthy of care, others being sent to relatives in various parts of the county.

It is said that about 40 per cent. of the inmates are not a proper charge on Los Angeles county. As rapidly as possible think that a flat rate of 40 cents a month could be made by agreement with all the other companies in the city," said Mr. Vance. "This would be for an eight-candle lamp. I heartily approve of the chief's suggestion and think it would go a long way as a deterrent of crime. I will see the heads of the other electric lighting companies tomorrow."

until he got a chance to stick a gun under the nose of some pedestrian. The pedestrian would see him as soon as he saw the pedestrian. Mr. Porch Climber would not care to perform with the spot lights turned on him so brightly. Mr. Burglar would not be safe while picking the lock on the front door or prying up a window.

The burning of an incandescent lamp on the porch would practically mean the employment of a private watchman at a cost of 40 cents a month. It would also make the streets far more attractive at night, but that is a secondary consideration. The lights would be burned at a flat rate. Some people might object that they get up late in the morning and so that the light would not be turned off at daybreak, but this would not make any difference with a flat rate. "I think that a flat rate of 40 cents a month could be made by agreement with all the other companies in the city," said Mr. Vance. "This would be for an eight-candle lamp. Whereas, said default has continued from the 1st day of September, 1908, to the present time, and for more than sixty days after said written notice thereof by the trustee to the said People's Gas and Coke Company; and said interest so in default has not been paid, nor any part thereof; and

Whereas, it is provided in said deed of trust that if the said People's Gas and Coke Company shall fail to pay said coupons or any of them, according to the terms and on the due presentation of the same and such default or failure shall continue for a space of sixty days after said written notice thereof had been given by the trustee of the said People's Gas and Coke Company, then the whole amount of principal and interest on said bonds shall be deemed immediately due and payable at the election of the trustee; and

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

Stone and Blackwood preface their summer at the Grand with a note, which is as follows: "Devotees of the high-drama may look in vain for any similarity between 'A Night on Broadway' and any of the Ibsen, Suderman or new thought-plays. There is not as far as the authors of this play have been able to discover, and the three-act musical piece—which is a 'gayety' comedy because the music sounds better than 'comedy'—is designed to make the patrons of the Grand Operetta forget their of the recent recall election, and the fact that the rent and grocery bills are soon to be due again."

One of the chief features of the programme will be the appearance of the Belasco Theater company in the third act of "Miss Hobbs," with Lewis S.
Stone and the other members of the company in the cast. An uncommon amount of interest will be centered upon this portion of the programme as it will be the first appearance of Miss Florence Reed before a local audience.
Miss Reed came here two months ago to join the Belasco Theater company, as leading lady, and was to have appeared five weeks ago in "Miss Hobbs," but was prevented from doing so by the unexpected success of "The brilliant artistry is to be revealed for the first time on any local stage at the Los Angeles Orphanage benefit Friday afternoon.

Sale of Sample Blankets
We bought these sample blankets, not so much because they came to us under usual price, as because we saw at once what unusually fine qualities they all are:

Fine wool blankets, with enough cotton in the foundation to prevent their shrinking when washed; and adding materially to their wearing qualities; full size, silk ribbon bound; blue or pink borders; soft and fluffy; instead of six dollars, their usual price, here for..... $4.00
This offer will interest hotel and apartment house proprietors as well as private individuals.

1.50 Silk Voiles 65c
Such a radical reduction is rare enough on fabrics that have passed the height of their popularity. To get stylish new stuffs at far below actual worth is what delights women who know dress goods values:

Light weight silk voiles, colliennes, poplinettes and etamines; fine, sheer goods of high grade; values to $1.50, specially priced at..... 65c
Cream mohairs with even stripes of blue, lavender, tan, pink and lemon; 43 inches wide; worth $1, for..... 50c
New Bedford cords at $1.50 a yard;
suits to measure..... $40

JOHNSON WILL BEGIN WORK.

Decides to Exercise But Ten Days for O'Brien.

Intends to Take on Kaufman

Planning a Visit to Europe in Three Weeks.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

CHICAGO, May 2.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Jack Johnson has wound up his theatrical engagements and will start hard training tomorrow for his fight with Jack O'Brien, which is scheduled for Philadelphia May 18. He has been working lightly with Ed Cutler, Tony Caponi and Yank Kenny and the three will act as his sparring partners for the next two weeks.

George Lytle, who is managing Johnson, says that although the big colossus will sail for England May 10, he intends to come back in time to his engagements here with Kaufman and Ketchel. Lytle also believes Johnson will meet Johnson.

"I stopped in the same hotel with Johnson when we were in New York," Lytle, "and finally got an interview with him. I believe he will box Johnson, all right, but he needs plenty of time to get back into shape. Even in his line of talk, he said he intended to make sure of getting back into trim. Sam Berger did most of the training with me, and I will attend to the recovery and when Jeff gets ready to Johnson's work will only be of about ten days' duration, as he then starts for Buffalo, to fill an engagement there.

SOLDIERS' CONTEST.

In the opening target practice of the R.I.C. at the State range yesterday, in which members of Co. A of the Seventh Regiment and the Signal Corps participated, high score of 123 for the rifle was made by Sgt. Decius Corp. Umsted, the latter leading with 44 at 200 yards and 46 at 300 yards, while Lt. Demmitt led at 400 yards, with 44. In the revolver

AERO CLUB ENGAGES IN NOVEL "STUNTS."

THE show business took on a new phase yesterday at Fiesta Park. Rarely, it is believed, has there been so much action crowded into a few hours. Not only were about 150 members of the Aero Club of California kept on the jump all afternoon in testing flying machine apparatus, but nearly every spectator was actively engaged in dodging soaring gliders, holding down the captive balloon, or helping to carry on tests of apparatus. Those who were not thus employed were occupied in examining the exhibits.

Although the show was not the success the club had planned, this was due to the fact that never before had such "stunts" been undertaken. The glider contests were conducted from the ground instead of from a high runway, as the derrick was not completed in time.

Six gliders were entered, and of the owners who took part Edgar S. Smith did the best work, and won a leg on the challenge cup offered by the club.

He was able to sail 200 feet across the stadium under pull by an automobile, and without the pull went fifty-two feet. Van M. Griffith was second, with a free glide of forty-two feet. The Polytechnic High School was third with twenty-four feet. These measurements were taken after the gliders were cut loose from their pulling power. A comparatively small speed was obtained against a light wind, this was considered creditable work.

Several gliders were broken. D. J. Johnson had one trial with his machine, which was expected to win. It turned on its nose in the first few feet because the pulling rope was not adjusted at the right place, and the main frame was smashed. It was not repaired in time for another attempt.

The glider from the Glendale High School struck on an end and a part of its frame was broken. That owned by Roydon and Elliott also met with a mishap.

The gliders might have had much better success had they been launched from the top of the derrick, and this will be attempted this week, as the club members have decided to continue experiments.

The captive balloon, America, under the skillful handling of Capt. Mueller and a crew from the Aero Club, made forty ascensions in safety. It was possible to take only three or four passengers each time. Many women made the trip and not a person suffered inconvenience.

The club members are encouraged over future prospects. It has been decided to secure a permanent location at some favorable point, where a large field for experiments may be used.

The big kite, to be used to carry a man, was not completed yesterday, but will be tried this week.

Frank Leyroxe, accompanied by Ray Voorhes, made an ascension at 1 o'clock from Fiesta Park in his new balloon Los Angeles.

TO CLEAN NICKEL.

Nickel with-room fixtures and other "trimmings" about the house, are ornamental, if kept bright; but keeping nickel bright is what many housekeepers dread. True, this is not easy, unless one has Gold Dust, but this may be obtained at any grocery. The rest is easy.

Make a warm soda using Gold Dust, and wash the nickel fixtures with a cloth. If very dim, rub a little of the Gold Dust directly upon the surface, rinse, and rub dry with a piece of soft linen or flannel.

Nickel lightly washed each week in Gold Dust and warm water, then wiped with a soft cloth, will never get dull and will never need hard rubbing, but is as easy to keep bright and clean as a piece of glass.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

TO IGNORANCE MAN OWES LIFE.

STUPIDITY PREVENTS MURDER
ON THE DESERT.

Santa Fe Section Boss at Newberry is Saved Because Desperate Mexicans Who Attacked Him Were Unable to Use Automatic Firearms They Took from Him.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 2.—John C. Brown, Santa Fe section boss at Newberry, ten miles east of Daguerre, owes his life to the ignorance of three desperate Mexicans in the use of automatic firearms. Luis Delgado, Rive Delgado and Clara Delgado, made a surprise attack upon him, took away his revolver and shotgun, and though they repeatedly to discharge the automatic into his body, failed, not knowing how to operate the safety mechanism.

The row occurred yesterday. Craven's gruffness exasperated the Mexicans under him to the point where they attacked him. He fought desperately, but was overpowered, disarmed, and though his assailants failed to shoot him they beat him up in a beating manner.

During the fight the two weapons were held several times against his head and the triggers pulled, but, owing to the ignorance of the safety device, failed to discharge. The Mexicans were run down by a posse, and taken to the County Jail, each to serve ninety days on the rock pile for assault.

GET TROUT TOO SOON.

C. M. Grow and C. A. Lathrop, manager and assistant manager, respectively, of the San Bernardino Gas and Lighting Company, were, according to a report brought from the mountains this morning, surprised Friday afternoon in their camp on Deep Creek, trying to fry trout. The unwelcome visitor was County Game Warden Vale, who, with Game Warden McDonald and Game Warden H. M. Willis of Los Angeles, went up the mountains Friday morning to get to the Deep Creek trout hatchery for the opening of the season.

Gas Knight, the well-known Bear Valley pumpman artist, while stating that the mountains folk kill and catch trout, they want to eat, makes the national report that Los Angeles parties have been hauling fish from the mountains by the wagonload, to serve in certain cafes.

The report has caused the State authorities to arrange a plan whereby the mountain sections will be guarded during the year hereafter.

STRANGE REPORT.

Has a circus anywhere in the country as strange a report brought here this morning by Jacob Todd, Bert Lewis and Harry Cunningham. They state that, after prospecting the hills and country above Victorville, they came across the tracks of an elephant, followed it for twenty miles, the animal finally being lost in the shifting sands of the desert.

DEEP WELL.

This city is to have the deepest well in its size in the valley. The well, an inch opening in the earth, is now 340 feet, and has already struck the water. The well is being sunk by the Water Commission, near the city reservoir, in Lytle Creek. There is little chance that it will be completed this year, but it is believed that by September it will be delivering its stream to the city system.

ORANGE SHIPMENTS.

The orange growers of Highland have the shipment of 500 cars of fruit for a bumper month. The main body of the various packing-houses are the following estimates on the remaining crop yet to go forward: J. C. Turkes of the Citrus Union, 90 cars; A. Thompson of the Highland Orange Growers' Association, 110 cars; L. H. Hulse of the Highland Fruit Growers' Association, 15 per cent. Steele states that he does not expect to see shipments close until August.

WALNUTS SHOW WELL.

Prospect of Average-sized Crop This Season in the Country About Anaheim.

ANAHEIM, May 2.—It is believed here will be an average sized crop of walnuts in this section the coming season. The trees in the Anaheim, Fullerton and Placentia sections are showing well. W. J. Montgomery of Anaheim thinks the crop out his way will be somewhat smaller than it was last season.

Mr. Rye, who has been practicing law for several years, has gone to Los Angeles to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilder of Los Angeles, who are in this city on a tour, are in the city on a tour.

The Sunset Telephone Company is to extend its system from this point to the Cypress district.

Mr. J. H. Jones has commenced the erection of a $1500 cottage in this city.

BALBOA.

BALBOA, May 2.—Surf fish were biting well on the outside today, and good catches are reported by all sportsmen who fished from the pier. In former times the surf fish came up the coast, but this season the opposite seems to be true.

There have been plentiful catches in the bay, and good crooks of spottin fish.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hogg landed twenty-seven striped bass in three hours.

HIGHWAY ROUTE PICTURESQUE.

HIGH CLIFFS, HUGE BOULDERS AND DEEP GORGES.

Roads Connecting Valley With San Diego Will Add to Scenic Attractions of Southeastern California. El Centro Postmaster Receives His Commission.

EL CENTRO, May 2.—C. N. Perry, engineer for the Imperial County Highway Commission, who is surveying two routes from the settled portion of the valley to connect with the highways of San Diego, is in El Centro today, from the camp he has established in Myers Cañon, about two miles from Mountain Springs. He reports that good progress is being made by his corps of surveyors, but that about three miles will be required to finish the work and the maps necessary to submit the matter to the Highway Commission. He is enthusiastic over the possibilities of a through highway to San Diego.

"Objection has been made to these routes on the ground that they are not picturesque," said Mr. Perry today, "but I know of no more picturesque section of southeastern California than that in which my men have been working the past week. High cliffs, deep gorges and huge boulders piled in fantastic shapes, give much variety. The farther south we go the rougher and more abrupt is the country, and I believe the idea of dipping down into the Mexican territory for a part of the way is entirely impracticable."

The surveyors have had a climb of 1675 feet in two miles every morning in going from the camp to their work.

TWENTY-ONE GRADUATES.

The Grammar schools will close on May 14, and twenty-one pupils will be graduated from the eighth grade, ready to enter the high school. A baccalaureate service is to be held in the Holt Operahouse on the evening of May 2, at which an address will be made by Harold Bell Wright, author of "The Printer of Udell's," "Shepherd of the Hills," and other popular books. Eight teachers, who were employed in the El Centro grammar schools at the opening of next year's work, and the school will be installed in its new two-story building.

NEW POSTMASTER.

Ora R. Miller, on Thursday received his commission as postmaster of El Centro for a term of four years from March 23. He has taken possession of the office, and has ordered new equipment, including 500 combination lock boxes, for the new location, in the Thomas Beach block, just completed. This office is now receiving ten mails daily.

LICENSED TO WED.

County Clerk Elder has issued marriage license to Henry Grundbecker and Mary Hanel, both of Imperial, to Robert Preston Gamble and Alma H. Tuttle, both of Imperial; to Leroy A. Britton and Attie Beck, both of Brawley.

ALONG THE CANALS.

Six of the thirty school districts of Imperial county have completed their school census and have filed their returns with the County Superintendent. In each a large increase of school children is shown.

The Imperial County Board of Education held examinations yesterday at El Centro, at which the pupils of the Imperial and Brawley for pupils graduating from the eighth grade of the grammar schools preparatory to entering high schools.

Ree keepers of Imperial Valley report that the high winds of the past week have been hard on the bees, they start out in the mornings and after loading themselves with honey, are unable to make their way back to the hives and fall exhausted. There were so heavy laden that they were helpless and were blown into the canals.

Large quantities of hay are being shipped out of the valley from every station of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

NARROW ESCAPE.

NEAR DEATH ON NARROW TRAIL.

ANGELENO WITHIN AN ACE OF LOSING HIS LIFE.

Only Rare Presence of Mind on His Own Part and Prompt Assistance of Companion Prevents One of Party With Traveling Trowel from Pitching Into Canyon.

SANTA BARBARA, May 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. W. Grant, member of the Southern California Masonic Lodge of Los Angeles, who is a member of a party of custodians of the "traveling trowel" had a narrow escape from death this afternoon when his horse fell off the steepest part of the tunnel trail leading down from Mt. La Cumbre. Only the rare presence of mind of the young man and prompt assistance of his companion saved both from pitching into the cañon.

Magnolia and Santa Barbara lodges were visited last night by a delegation of Los Angeles Masons, who carried the far-famed trowel. There was a meeting, degree work and a big banquet. This morning a party of thirty-two, comprising the men from Los Angeles, and a delegation from both lodges, went up the La Cumbre trail on saddle horses. On this peak, 4000 feet above the sea, was left the insignia of the order, which the trowel mortician placed in the granite boulder. There were speeches, and then the party started to return.

The tunnel trail is extremely narrow, in some places being no more than a steep ledge, with the mountain rising on one side and a chasm on the other. About a mile from the summit Grant's horse stumbled and slipped over the edge. There was barely a foothold beneath, but Grant, who had leaped off the horse, landed, after a scramble on the ledge, and with the aid of his companion, assisted his horse back upon the ledge. The remainder of the ride was without incident.

The party left for the south this evening. The trowel is in charge of E. B. Spencer, custodian. C. F. Anderson, S. E. Hart and Dana R. Weller, Senior Grand Warden, were among the visitors from Los Angeles.

Nebraska Senator Towed Several Miles Out to Sea by Six-foot Jewfish. But Finally Land. His Big Prey—Bank Deposits Show Splendid Gain—Absent Healer.

SAN DIEGO, May 2.—Aided by a gift of $2,000 from John D. Spreckels, local Masons will at once begin the erection of a four-story brick and concrete building to be used as a temple. It will cost $100,000 and will be located at the corner of A and Ash streets, where the Masonic Building Association owns a plot of ground 100x100 feet.

CATCHES MONSTER FISH.

Senator Hall of Nebraska, yesterday caught a monster fish outside the surf at Ocean Beach. It weighed 400 pounds and measured 61 ins. in length and 4 ft. 8 ins. in circumference.

The successful hunter was carried several miles out to sea in his boat by the fighting fish, but he finally landed his prey after a hard tussle.

BIG GAIN IN BANK DEPOSITS.

A remarkable increase in deposits in the local banks is noted over the last quarter. At the close of business, April 25, eleven banks in the city had on deposit $3,926,272.45. At the close of business, November 25, 1908, the deposits were $1,515,157.77, the gain being $1,411,114.68. This is a remarkable showing of the stable financial conditions prevailing in San Diego.

DEFERS AWARDING CONTRACT.

Although a number of bids were received for grading the first fourteen miles of track to Tia Juana, the San Diego and Arizona Railroad Company yesterday postponed awarding the contract until Monday or Tuesday. Some of the most prominent railroad contractors of the country have put in bids and several have personal representatives here.

HEALER STILL MISSING.

No trace has been obtained of Gustav Milde, the healer, who disappeared from his rooms a week ago. Milde left all his effects in his room at the Concordia hotel on G street, and left no explanation as to where and why he had gone away.

GAIN IN SCHOOL CENSUS.

Completion of the school census by H. W. Vincent shows a total of 8120 children, which is an increase of 532 over that of a year ago. While engaged in taking the census the enumerators found that the ratio of families that include children of school age is one in three, which means that to every child of 17 years there are six adults. On this basis San Diego's population is 49,620. The biggest part of the gain is in the First Ward, with an increase of 429. The Second, Third and Fifth wards, being in the business district, lost in the number of school children from last year. Other wards made slight increases.

CORONA, May 2.—John G.
